Fair Royalty Contest Rules

This is not a beauty contest. You do not need artistic talent to enter. Entrants will be judged on their ability to communicate (speaking ability), message, promptness, and appearance. The results will be announced during the pageant and the new royalty will be crowned during the rodeo on July 14th 2023.

1. Queen entrant must be a female at least 15 years of age and not over 19 years of age during their reign.

2. Princess entrant must be a female at least 11 to 14 years of age during their reign.

- A Queen/Princess may not recompute for the same title back to back years. A Queen Attendant/Princess Attendant may recompute back to back years to try to obtain the Queen/Princess title. The Attendant title may only be held up to 2 back to back years by one contestant.
- Any questions about eligibility to run for another title need to be directed to the Royalty Coordinator

3. Entrant must be a U.S. Citizen and a resident of Park County or adjacent counties (Clear Creek, Summit, Lake, Chaffee, Fremont, Teller or Jefferson; other counties may enter with permission from Park County Royalty Coordinator). Entrant does not have to be in 4-H or FFA

4. While it is not required for Queen or Princess Entrants to ride horses, it is strongly encouraged. If Entrant would like to be eligible to run sponsor flags as well as be apart of the Grand Entry during fair, or participate in any other horse events throughout her reign, entrant must schedule time with Arena Director during fair for area ride test.

5. Be single, have never been married, have not been pregnant nor given birth to a child.

6. Entrants must have their parent or legal guardians' signature on the entry form. The purpose of this signature is to allow Park County Fair to use the transcript for the interview. This entry signature also ensures the parents/guardian is aware of her participation in this contest and provides their consent to photos and videos that will be taken of all contestants for the use of promoting the Park County Fair and Fair Royalty Program.

7. Entrants should be able to meet all time commitments, Queen Obligations, Behavior Policy and dress code as set forth by the Park County Fair Board and the Park County Fair Royalty Program Coordinator.

8. Be an upstanding citizen and of good moral character (at the discretion of the Fair Board).

9. Entrants will be required to attend 2023 and 2024 Park County Fair to participate in award presentations and any other activities deemed necessary by the Fair Board or Royalty Coordinator.

10. The elected Royalty Members are expected to be responsive in a timely fashion (not to exceed 24 hours) to the calls and emails of the Royalty Coordinator(s) or the Fair Board members.

11. If any current member of the Royalty program is unable to fulfill her duties and/or is dismissed, it will be at the discretion of the Park County Fair Board and the Royalty Coordinator to select her replacement or determine if one is necessary. She will immediately relinquish her title and all privileges and prizes, including jackets, buckles, jewelry, etc. awarded to her. The sash and crown are the property of the Park County Fair and will be immediately returned in the same condition as received or reimburse the Fair for the cost of replacements.

The deadline for application entry is May 27th, 2023.

The decision of the judge's is final. Any contestant must score a minimum of 70 points to be eligible to hold a title. If there are no contestants for Queen or Princess, or the contestant(s) that compete do not meet the minimum point requirement, it is at the discretion of the Royalty coordinator to potentially allow a current Queen or Princess to continue for another year. This contest may be cancelled if we have two or less entrants.

Judging:Appearance:

The aim of this division is to select the girl who rates the highest in grooming, posture, poise, and who most reflects the western image. Judges will be looking for neatness and cleanliness in every detail including hats, hair, boots and other apparel.

Personality:

The aim of this division is to select the girl who rates the highest in conversational ability, sense of humor, genuine interest, consideration for others and has a happy outlook on life.

Speech, questions and interviews:

The aim of this division is to select the girl who rates highest in interview ability, getting her ideas and thoughts across in conversation and answering the questions.

Biography:

This should include name, age, school attending, parents, hobbies, favorite food, activities involved in, and college or future plans.

The speech, interview, and written test will be held on July 1, 2023. For the interview, each entrant will meet alone with the panel of judges for 5-15 minutes. The judges will utilize the information from your application as well as additional questions. You will be judged on your conversational ability, speech, the answers to the judges' questions, your appearance/poise, activities, and knowledge of the fair industry.

NOTE: The outfit for the interview and the speech should follow the dress code

AGREEMENT: I have read and understand the rules and agree to comply.
